State treasurer program offers financial empowerment for women

Women & Money

All OCSEA women are encouraged to attend one of the State Treasurer of Ohio Women and Money conferences being held around the state. “Women and Money” is a free financial conference and is part of Treasurer Richard Cordray’s commitment to provide the women of Ohio with the knowledge they need to make informed financial decisions.

To register for the day-long conference, go to www.ohiotreasurer.gov or call 800-228-1102. See below for dates in your area.
