

Deadline approaches for the THE NADRA FLOYD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The AFSCME Education and Leadership Training Department is offering four annual scholarships. These are open to all AFSCME members and staff who want to increase their leadership skills and obtain a degree from the National Labor College, George Meany Campus, Silver Spring, MD.

Twice yearly $1,000 scholarships are offered to recipients to use for tuition, books, and room and board at the National Labor College.

Selections will be based on:

- an essay
- a letter of recommendation from your local union president or council director/president
- a letter of recommendation from a person in your community
- a confirmation of enrollment or approved enrollment to the National Labor College

Applications must be postmarked by no later than

DECEMBER 1, 2008.

Award recipients will be notified by December 21, 2008.

Who was Nadra
Floyd?

Nadra, a dedicated trade unionist committed to her union, her family and the civil rights movement, passed away in November of 2001. The scholarship in her name honors her memory.