The Holidays are just around the corner.
This season, give
the good gift
of good jobs.

For 100 years, the AFL-CIO Union Label and Service Trades Department has been promoting quality products and services produced in America by union members.

As we near the holidays, the Union Label is asking that you support union label companies when you buy this giving season.

It's easy. When out shopping for gifts for your family and friends, just check the label on anything you buy. If it doesn't have a union label, put it back.
