SECOND EDITION
Paul F. Clark

$21.95 / £11.95 PAPER | AN ILR PRESS BOOK
232 PAGES | ISBN 978-0-8014-7519-1

Paul F. Clark believes union leaders should take advantage of the valuable discoveries made in behavioral science, and, in Building More Effective Unions, he offers a straightforward account of how they can do so. The second edition provides an updated discussion of important lessons behavioral science holds for labor organizations. It also provides new examples of how unions and their leaders have benefited from putting the principles outlined in the first edition into practice.

“Building More Effective Unions succeeds at linking behavioral research findings to the practical problem of increasing participation. It will therefore prove useful to academics studying this pervasive problem and union practitioners working to improve their organizations.”

—Industrial and Labor Relations Review

“Building More Effective Unions is full of first-rate, evidence-based, practical information on how to engage members in ways that build greater commitment and loyalty to the union. Every union would benefit from the ideas in this excellent book.”

—Mary Lehman MacDonald, Director AFT Healthcare

“I have used the book in over fifty courses and sections and will continue to use it often.”

—Greg Giebel, First Provost, National Labor College
