EXTRAS CORRECTION TO NOTE!

The First Communications offer printed in the 2008 Extras booklet.....➔ (mailed with the Public Employee Quarterly) was incorrect.

The information mistakenly detailed commercial local and long distance plans instead of residential.

The correct offer:

Save up to 40 percent by switching your phone service to First Communications. As before, a percentage of each dollar you spend on First Communications' telecommunication services goes directly to OCSEA's strike fund.

- No switchover fee
- Keep your current phone number
- Long distance rates as low as 3.9 cents per minute
- One easy-to-read monthly bill
- Account credits given for referring other members or family members
- Superior customer care – no long waits on hold or confusing automated menus
- Local calling plans
- Toll-free service
